

AMENDMENTS TO THE CLAIMS

The following Listing of Claims will replace all prior versions, and listing of claims in the Application:

Listing Of Claims:

1. (Currently Amended) An identified structure of a controlling bulb and a normal bulb of a decorative light string, ~~wherein comprising:~~

~~the controlling bulb is received in a first holder having several on a periphery, two pairs of grooves, said first holder receiving said controlling bulb; and is then received in~~

~~a first socket, said first socket having a first and second pair of relating projections[[,] and receiving said first holder therein, said projections extending inward from an inner surface of said first socket, each projection from said first pair of projections being diametrically opposed to one respective projection from said second pair of projections; while the normal bulb is received in another a second holder having several two grooves, said second holder receiving said normal bulb; and is then received in~~

~~a second relating socket, said second socket having two relating projections and receiving said second holder therein, said projections extending inward from an inner surface of said second holder and being diametrically opposed each to the~~

MR1197-613

Serial Number: 10/801,706

Reply to Office Action dated 22 July 2005

other the projections and the grooves on the socket and the socket of the controlling bulb having different positions from those of the normal bulb.